

WOMEN IN TECH

@TÉCNICO LISBOA

Participants in Women in Tech@Técnico Lisboa arriving by plane can easily reach IST Alameda Campus, located in the city centre, by taking the underground's red line at the Airport and getting off at the Saldanha station. This will cost you 1,40 €uros.

But there are other ways to go from the Airport to Lisbon's centre.

By BUS there are regular transportation services to the centre.

CARRIS is Lisbon's Bus Company that ensures surface transportation services within the city.

Additionally, you can take a taxi at the Airport, which may cost you around 8-10€, to the city centre.

If you are travelling by train you can get off at the Oriente Station or Santa Apolónia Station. Both are linked to the subway network and Bus network.
